

A free press requires different perspectives. If all media is owned by one or a few corporations, there is no way that a diversity of opinions will be presented in the media. This undermines American democracy by preventing the people from using the media to educate themselves. It is absolutely unacceptable. Please keep my comments in mind when deciding how to vote on the FCC rule change.